

I don't think it's appropriate or reasonable that Sinclair Broadcasting be allowed to force their stations to show an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. This corporation has tremendous power...isn't it your job to make sure they don't abuse it?

I would be equally appalled if they decided to air Michael Moore's film in the same manner. This isn't about being a republican or democrat, it's about power and balance. Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them.

For the sake of our democratic process, please take action.
